BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES IN ALBANIA (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Following the collapse of communism in 1992, Albania continues to make strides in its transition from a closed, centrally planned economy to a modern, open-market economy. The country is pursuing aggressively its Euro-Atlantic integration agenda. In 2000, Albania became a World Trade Organization (WTO) member and in June 2006, the Government of Albania (GOA) signed a Stabilization and Association Agreement (SAA) with the European Union (EU), the first step towards the EU accession process. In April 2009, Albania became a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) member country and at the same time, submitted its application for EU candidacy status, both considered major milestones in the country's history. A small country with a population of 2.83 million people (2011 census) and a landmass approximately the size of Maryland, Albania's economy posted strong growth in the 2000s, with an average annual growth rate of 6 percent from 2000 to 2008. Although Albania largely was spared from the initial severe fallout of the 2008 financial crisis, the prolonged European crises, coupled with a challenging fiscal and budgetary environment and structural problems in the local economy, has caused economic output to steadily decline since 2009. 2013 GDP growth likely will decline to 0.7 percent, the lowest in more than a decade, and far from the government's initial projection of 3.1 percent. Faced with mounting public debt (approximately 70 percent of GDP), large government arrears to the private sector, and a weak economy, the government signed a $457 million arrangement with the International Monetary Fund at the end of 2013 and took out two development policy loans worth a total of $220 million from the World Bank in May 2014....
