Our peopl intend to abide by that verdict and to enforce the mandate They rejoice at Vyvtj evidence of acquiescence. They look forward to the day when ike distinctions of North and South shall hare melted airay in the grander sentiment of nationality, , But they done! think it ia y g and fe to place the centred f this great work in your hands. In ths hands of some of Jqu they wmiicl ba safe, perfectly safe; but to the hands of the united South, joined with the mmt reactionary elements of the. Northern Democracy, our people will not yet surre and dertheGtoyermentc I am aware that there is a general disposition to let by-gones be. by-gones, and to judge of parties and of men, not by what they hay e he en, hut by what they km and what they propose. That view is partly just and partly erroneous. It isjust and wis to bury. resentments and animosities. It is erroneous in-his, that parties hay an organic life and spirit of their own--am individuality and character which outlive the men who compos them; and the spirit and traditions of a party should be considered in determining their fitness for aa an aging the stairs of and nation. For this purpose I liar reviewed the history of the Democratic party, I have no disposition nor would it be just to shield the Republican party from fair and searching criticism. It im been called...
