VOICES OF CORK: THE KNITTING MAP SPEAKS

The History Press Ltd. Softcover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. Available Now. Book Description: Above the earth there is a satellite, which looks down at Cork, and watches the movements of people and cars around the city. Down in the hub, small cameras watch the city in detail, and meteorological equipment tastes the weather. Through up to date technology, this information is transformed into a knitting pattern, which constantly shifts. Down in the city, there is a long room in...
