Excerpt: . . . support for their partnerships work, and by contracting with other organizations to carry out advocacy efforts. The accomplishments reported by collaboratives included increased funding for training for low-income workers, improved articulation agreements among educational institutions; new training programs and certifications; and changes in employer practices such as pre-payment of tuition for incumbent workers to return to school, employer funding for basic skills training, and greater flexibility in work schedules for incumbent workers attending classes. E. Emerging Issues for the NFWS Initiative The experience of the first period of operation highlighted a set of issues for NFWS as it moves forward. These can be grouped into four major areas: the changed economic and political environment, the NFWS theory of change, supporting career advancement, and defining and measuring success. The Changed Economic and Political Environment The severe recession and new political environment have presented the collaboratives and workforce partnerships with challenges and opportunities. Fundraising has become tougher in the...
