Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Every young athlete s dream is to earn a college scholarship. This is especially true today with skyrocketing out of state tuition, not to mention the cost of living expenses for college students. The information in this report will optimize your chances of making the dream of a college scholarship a reality. Scholarship or bust is broken down into four sections. Part one: Self Assessment Do you have what it takes to earn a starting spot on your team let alone a full athletic scholarship? The report will take you through a brutally honest self assessment questionnaire to help you set realistic goals. It gives you a starting point to see what you may need to do to optimize your chances of earning a scholarship to the school of your dreams. Some people have a longer road than others in order to get to the final destination. Part two: Training Major college athletes are not only genetically gifted but also physically superior. This section describes several drills to develop your own abilities to optimize your chances of success. These drills focus on foot and hand quickness as well as ways to improve your reaction times. Part Three: Mental One of the biggest challenges to achieving any goal is self-doubt. This section covers techniques to maintain focus and eliminate distractions. The mind always fails before the body - Arnold Schwarzenegger Part Four: Who to contact Marketing is critical to getting the exposure you need to get noticed by the schools you are interested in attending. You have done all the preparation needed but now you have to know who to contact and how to do it. This section covers...
